

equities. As part of that licensing agreement, the NYSE required that it be protected from liability for damages sustained by Amex members and member organizations using the display book on the Amex floor. Consequently, the Amex adopted a policy statement disclaiming NYSE liability for such damages.³

Most recently, the Amex entered into an agreement with the NYSE to integrate the Amex's Equity Intra-Day Comparison System ("IDC") into the NYSE's On-Line Comparison System ("OCS"), so that Amex equity and bond transactions can be compared through OCS. This will enable members to utilize the same computer terminal for the comparison of both Amex and NYSE securities and thus lessen the cost to the member firm community. The integration is being accomplished in two steps. Amex listed corporate bonds began to be compared through OCS on October 21, 1994, and equities are expected to be phased in by the end of the first quarter of 1995.

As the Amex may enter into additional agreements with the NYSE in the future relating to the use of other NYSE systems, services, or facilities by Amex member firms, this proposal would codify a liability disclaimer provision to cover not only the current situation involving the use of OCS, but also all future situations where Amex member firms are using other NYSE facilities in accordance with similar agreements with the NYSE.⁴ The Amex plans to disseminate proposed Commentary .02 to its Rule 60 to the membership, upon SEC approval.

The Commission notes that the Amex Constitution (Article IV, Section 2(e)) currently provides that the Exchange shall not be liable for any damages incurred by a member firm growing out of its use of the facilities afforded by the Exchange for the conduct of its business (which includes the use of the Exchange's trading systems), except as the Exchange may otherwise provide. Further, the NYSE Constitution has a similar provision regarding use of its facilities by its members. Finally, the Commission notes that the terms of the proposed Commentary are merely a codification of the contractual agreements between the Amex and the NYSE wherein the Amex has agreed to disclaim NYSE's liability under the specified circumstances referred to herein.

The Commission believes that it is reasonable for the NYSE to be released from liability for injuries sustained by Amex members and member organizations using the NYSE's OCS. As noted above, the proposed rule change is similar to existing Amex and NSE rules that limit exchange liability. In addition, under similar circumstances, the Commission has allowed licensee exchanges to release licensors from certain liability for damages resulting from use of their product.⁵ Finally, the Commission wishes to emphasize that this disclaimer only affects NYSE liability for losses sustained by Amex members and member organizations using OCS and does not extend to customer-related losses.

III. Conclusion

The Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities exchange, and, in particular, with the requirements of Section 6(b).⁶ In particular, the Commission believes the proposal is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5) requirements that the rules of an exchange be designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities. The Commission also finds that the proposal is consistent with Section 17A⁷ in that it furthers the use of new data processing and communications techniques that should result in more accurate clearance and settlement of securities transactions.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,⁸ that the proposed rule change (SR-Amex-94-50) is approved.

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Notice of Filing of Proposed Rule Change By the American Stock Exchange, Inc. Relating to the Listing of Warrants Based on the Value of the U.S. Dollar in Relation to the Mexican Peso

February 13, 1995.

Pursuant to section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"), 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(1), notice is hereby given that on February 8, 1995, the American Stock Exchange, Inc. ("Amex" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which items have been prepared by the Amex. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to approve for listing and trading under section 106 of the Amex Company Guide ("Guide") warrants based on the value of the U.S. dollar in relation to the Mexican peso ("Mexican Peso Warrants"). The text of the proposed rule change is available at the Office of the Secretary, the Amex, and at the Commission.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discuss any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Amex has prepared summaries, set forth in sections (A), (B), and (C) below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

(A) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and the Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

Under section 106 (Currency and Index Warrants) of the Guide, the Exchange may approve for listing warrants based on the relation of the U.S. dollar to foreign currencies.¹ The Amex currently trades foreign currency warrants based upon the value of the U.S. dollar in relation to a single foreign currency (e.g., Japanese yen and German mark) as well as warrants based on the value of the U.S. dollar in relation to multiple foreign currencies.²

The Exchange represents that Mexican Peso Warrants will conform to the listing guidelines under section 106 of the Guide, which provide, among other things, that: (1) the issuer must have assets in excess of U.S. $100,000,000 and otherwise substantially exceed the size and earnings requirements in section 101(A) of the Guide; (2) the term of the warrants will be for a period ranging from one to five years from the date of issuance; and (3) the minimum public distribution will be one million warrants, together with a minimum of 400 public holders, and an aggregate market value of at least U.S. $4,000,000 million.

Mexican Peso Warrants generally will be direct obligations of their issuers and will be cash-settled in U.S. dollars. Mexican Peso Warrants will either be exercisable throughout their life (i.e., American-style) or exercisable only during a specified period immediately prior to the expiration date (i.e., European-style). Upon exercise, the holder of a warrant structured as a "put" will receive payment in U.S. dollars to the extent that the value of the Mexican peso has declined in relation to the U.S. dollar below a pre-stated base level. Conversely, upon exercise, holders of a Mexican Peso Warrant structured as a "call" will receive payment in U.S. dollars to the extent that the value of the Mexican peso has increased in relation to the U.S. dollar above a pre-stated base level. Mexican Peso Warrants that are "out-of-the-money" at the time of expiration will expire worthless.

Notwithstanding any other Amex rule,³ the Exchange will require that Mexican Peso Warrants be sold only to customers whose accounts have been approved for options trading pursuant to Amex Rule 921. Additionally, the options suitably standards in Amex Rule 923 will apply to recommendations in Mexican Peso Warrants. Moreover, all discretionary orders in Mexican Peso Warrants must be approved and initiated by a Senior Registered Options Principal or Registered Options Principal. Further, the Exchange will require that customer positions in Mexican Peso Warrants be subject to the margin requirements applicable to foreign currency options.

Finally, prior to the commencement of trading of Mexican Peso Warrants, the Amex will distribute a circular to its membership calling attention to specific risks associated with Mexican Peso Warrants.⁴

The Exchange believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with section 6(b) of the Act, in general, and furthers the objectives of section 6(b)(5) in particular, in that it is designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and is not designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers.

(B) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Amex does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any inappropriate burden on competition.

(C) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Within 35 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the self-regulatory organization consents, the Commission will:

(A) By order approve such proposed rule change, or

(B) Institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

⁴ The Commission notes that the Amex will be required to submit a draft of the circular to the Commission staff for approval prior to distribution to members.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549. Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Section, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the Amex. All submissions should refer to File No. SR-Amex-95-04 and should be submitted by March 10, 1995.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.⁵
